

PRIVACY NOTICE-2023

Navigen Wealth Management (referred to as “NAVIGEN”) maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to protect its clients’ nonpublic personal information (“information”). Through this policy and its underlying procedures, NAVIGEN attempts to secure the confidentiality of customer records and information and protect against anticipated threats or hazards to the security or integrity of customer records and information.

It is the policy of NAVIGEN to restrict access to all current and former clients’ information (i.e., information and records pertaining to personal background, investment objectives, financial situation, tax information/returns, investment holdings, account numbers, account balances, etc.) to those employees and affiliated/nonaffiliated entities who need to know that information in order to provide products or services to the client. NAVIGEN may disclose the client’s information if NAVIGEN is: (1) previously authorized to disclose the information to individuals and/or entities not affiliated with NAVIGEN, including, but not limited to the client’s other professional advisors and/or service providers (i.e., attorney, accountant, insurance agent, broker-dealer, investment adviser, account custodian, etc.); (2) required to do so by judicial or regulatory process; or (3) otherwise permitted to do so in accordance with the parameters of applicable federal and/or state privacy regulations. The disclosure of information contained in any document completed by the client for processing and/or transmittal by NAVIGEN in order to facilitate the commencement/continuation/termination of a business relationship between the client and a nonaffiliated third party service provider (i.e., broker-dealer, investment adviser, account custodian, insurance company, etc.), including information contained in any document completed and/or executed by the client for NAVIGEN (i.e., advisory agreement, client information form, etc.), shall be deemed as having been automatically authorized by the client with respect to the corresponding nonaffiliated third party service provider.

NAVIGEN permits only authorized employees and affiliates who have signed a copy of NAVIGEN’s Privacy Policy to have access to client information. Employees violating NAVIGEN’s Privacy Policy will be subject to NAVIGEN’s disciplinary process. Additionally, whenever NAVIGEN hires other organizations to provide services to NAVIGEN’s clients, NAVIGEN will require them to adhere to our Privacy Policy.

Should you have any questions regarding the above, please contact Bradley Nagel, Chief Compliance Officer at 920-676-3334.
